GOECHALA TREK

THE TREK

LOCATION & BRIEF DETAILS

Goecha La (La means a mountain pass in Tibetan), is situated at an altitude of 16200ft in the district of West Sikkim bordering Nepal. The trail climbs steadily to cross a ridge at Dzongri and then proceeds north to the Onglathang Valley to reach Goecha La at its head. It is a traditional trekking route popular both to the Indians and foreigners, which follows a picturesque route past lush vegetation, blooming rhododendron flowers and wonderful mountain views. On a clear day the panorama from Dzongri top is unmatched and offers at least 20 high Himalayan peaks including Black Kabru, Kabru (South/North/Dome), Pandim, Tenzingkhong, Jopuno, Fork (I & II), Rathong, Frey, Kokthang and the gorgeous Kanchendzongha range. The trail entirely lies inside Kanchendzongha National Park which is a biodiversity hotspot. Nature is bountiful through flora and fauna.

#WRAVELERSPLEDGEGREEN

It is very important as a responsible wraveler to keep the trail clean & thus every wraveler is a part of our green army initiative WRAVELERSPLEDGEGREEN. During the trek a black bag is provided to pick up stuff that doesn't belong on the trail. If not comfortable it is the responsibility of a wraveler to bring back the stuff that belonged to him/her and is now trash in the same black bag which now belongs to the dustbin wherever you find one.
